STAT

In the temporary absence of the Vice President from Washington, I wish to acknowledge your letter of October 1.

You may be sure that the Vice President will appreciate your taking the time and trouble to impart the intelligence which you did, and I shall be very glad to bring the letter to his attention. In the meantime, however, its contents have been transmitted to the cognizant officials who can take appropriate action.

I know that the Vice President would want me to extend his best wishes to you.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Cushman, Jr.
Executive Assistant to the Vice President
